

Call for Applications

Research Fellow in Trinitarian Ontologies

The Dean of the Sts Cyril and Methodius Faculty of Theology, Palacký University in Olomouc, announces

a call for applications for the Research Fellow job position in the Department of Philosophy and Patrology.

The Research Fellow will work closely with members of the Department of Philosophy and Patrology and the research group of the project "Trinitarian Ontologies: A New Philosophical Investigation into Trinitarian Relationality" (Triertium). He will participate in all research activities of the Triertium research group (research seminars, conferences, scientific and cultural projects, online courses), conduct systematic or historical research in relational or Trinitarian ontology (in relation to patrology, comeniology, theological aesthetics, metaphysics, philosophical ethics or philosophy of religion), both independently and as part of the research group, publish in high-quality international scientific journals or publishing houses in accordance with the submitted individual research plan (separate part of the application), and initiate and participate in the preparation of other research projects, as well as in the creation of a network of international research cooperation in contemporary Christian thought.
